

Amendments to the Abstract:

The Abstract was replaced with the following Abstract:

A surgical device for use in a minimally invasive procedure to treat urinary ~~incontinue~~ incontinence can include a dilator coupled to a curved needle at one end and a sling at the opposite end. Urinary incontinence can be treated minimally invasively. One treatment includes positioning the sling on an anterior portion of the urethra to provide proper ~~ceaption~~ coaptation to the urethra.